

IN THE MOMENT™

Private Beta Access, Confidentiality & Participation Agreement

Tantie B LLC | Participant Agreement v1.0 | September 10, 2026

This Agreement is between Tantie B LLC (“Tantie B,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) and the individual participant (“Participant,” “you,” or “your”) who accepts it. It governs invitation-only access to the private beta of In The Moment™ (“Beta”) and becomes effective when you electronically accept it. Beta access is granted only after Tantie B approval.

1. Purpose, Eligibility and Access

In The Moment™ is a pre-release educational and family-guidance tool. The Beta allows invited adults age 18 or older to test functionality, usability, navigation and clarity and provide honest, good-faith feedback. Access is personal, temporary, revocable and non-transferable. Do not share or transfer your invitation, account, PIN, magic link, access link, credentials or other means of access. Tantie B may modify, pause or end features or access at any time. Participation does not require purchase of any future product.

2. Educational Guidance - Not Clinical Care

In The Moment™ provides general educational and family-guidance information. It is not speech-language therapy, feeding therapy, diagnosis, treatment, medical advice, psychological treatment, crisis support, individualized therapeutic intervention or individualized clinical care. Use does not create a clinician-patient, therapist-client or other professional treatment relationship with Tantie B LLC or any of its owners, employees, contractors or representatives. It is not a substitute for professional evaluation, therapy, medical care or emergency services. For concerns, contact an appropriate licensed professional; for an emergency or immediate safety concern, contact the appropriate emergency service.

3. Private Beta and Confidentiality

The Beta contains confidential, non-public and pre-release information belonging to Tantie B LLC and/or its licensors (“Confidential Information”), including screenshots and screen recordings; guidance, wording and instructional content; workflows, navigation and product structure; designs, graphics and visual assets; prototypes, features and product concepts; pricing; business or technical information; and other unpublished Beta materials. Unless Tantie B gives prior written permission, you may not copy, reproduce, record, distribute, transmit, publish, display, post, upload, sell, sublicense, commercially exploit or publicly share Confidential Information. Screenshots or recordings may be created or sent only as reasonably needed for Beta feedback or support directly to Tantie B. Do not upload Confidential Information to public websites, social media, shared repositories, generative-AI systems or other third-party services unless Tantie B specifically authorizes that use in writing. Tantie B LLC may ask a court to stop any improper sharing or misuse of confidential Beta information, in addition to using any other legal remedies available.

4. Security, No Extraction and No Competitive Use

Use reasonable care to protect access and promptly notify support@in-the-moment.com if access or Confidential Information is lost, compromised or disclosed without authorization. You may not reverse engineer or reconstruct the product; bypass authentication, permissions or security controls; systematically scrape, extract or collect Beta content; create unauthorized derivative materials; or use Confidential Information to build or assist in building a competing product. These restrictions do not limit rights that applicable law does not permit the parties to waive.

5. Ownership and Intellectual Property

Tantie B LLC retains all right, title and interest in In The Moment™ and its proprietary materials, including content, educational guidance, text and wording, structure, methods, workflows, interfaces, designs, branding, trademarks, copyrighted materials, graphics, visual assets, product concepts, software-related materials, improvements and future developments. Beta access gives you only a limited, personal, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the Beta for authorized testing. Participation creates no ownership, authorship, inventorship, co-development, partnership, employment, agency, licensing, approval or other proprietary right.

6. Feedback; No Compensation, Rights or Royalties

Feedback includes comments, observations, reactions, ideas, corrections, feature suggestions and usability recommendations. You assign to Tantie B LLC any right, title and interest you may have in Feedback created and submitted for the Beta. If any such right cannot be assigned, you grant Tantie B a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, transferable and sublicensable license to use, reproduce, modify, adapt, create derivative works from, commercialize and otherwise use that Feedback for lawful business and product purposes, without attribution or compensation. Only submit feedback, suggestions, or materials that you have the right to provide to Tantie B LLC. Tantie B will not intentionally publish your name with Feedback without permission.

Participation is voluntary and does not entitle you to compensation, payment, reimbursement, wages, fees, commissions, royalties, revenue sharing, profit participation, equity, ownership, authorship, intellectual-property rights, approval rights or any other financial or proprietary interest, now or in the future, arising from Beta participation or feedback provided.

7. Privacy, Participant Data and Children’s Information

For Beta administration, Tantie B may collect and use your name, email address, participant role, device/browser information, authentication/access information and Feedback to authorize access, authenticate users, provide support, evaluate and improve the Beta and maintain security. Tantie B does not sell participant email addresses and may use service providers reasonably necessary to operate and secure the Beta, as described in the In The Moment™ Privacy Policy provided with the Beta and in effect when you accept this Agreement. Do not submit a child’s full name, date of birth, home address, school, Social Security number, diagnosis, medical or health record, photographs, video, voice recording or other sensitive personal or clinical information through the Beta, access form or ordinary feedback/support channels unless Tantie B expressly establishes an authorized process.

8. Leaving the Beta, Data Deletion and Records

You may leave the Beta or request deletion of your user data by contacting support@in-the-moment.com from the same email address used for access. Leaving does not itself request deletion. A deletion request does not require Tantie B to destroy records law permits or requires it to retain, or limited records reasonably needed to document this Agreement and consent, protect legal rights, investigate security issues, prevent fraud, resolve disputes or comply with law. Residual copies may remain in routine backups until overwritten or deleted in the ordinary course, subject to applicable law.

9. Pre-Release Status, Disclaimer and Limitation

The Beta is pre-release and provided “as is” and “as available.” It may contain errors, interruptions, incomplete content or changed features. Tantie B does not promise uninterrupted availability, error-free operation or that the Beta will meet every participant’s expectations. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Tantie B disclaims implied warranties and is not liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages arising from Beta participation. Nothing excludes or limits liability that applicable law does not allow to be excluded or limited.

10. Ending Access, Survival and Required Disclosure

Tantie B may suspend or terminate access for non-participation, misuse, security concerns, breach or any other lawful reason. Ending access does not waive any prior breach, accrued right or remedy. When access ends, stop using the Beta and, if requested, delete or return Confidential Information retained outside normal Beta operation, except where law requires retention. Your confidentiality obligations continue after Beta access ends. If legally compelled to disclose Confidential Information, where legally permitted you must promptly notify Tantie B and disclose only what is legally required.

11. Governing Terms and Electronic Acceptance

This Agreement is governed by New York law, except where applicable law requires otherwise. Subject to applicable law, disputes may be brought in the state or federal courts located in Kings County, New York, and you consent to their jurisdiction. If a provision is unenforceable, the rest remains effective. Failure to enforce a provision is not a waiver. You may not assign or transfer this Agreement or Beta access without Tantie B’s written consent. Tantie B may assign this Agreement to an affiliate, successor or acquirer of the product or business. This Agreement, together with the Privacy Policy in effect when accepted, is the entire agreement governing ordinary Beta participation and may be modified only in a writing authorized by Tantie B LLC. Confidentiality, security, ownership, Feedback, no-compensation/proprietary-rights, retained-records, disclaimer/limitation and governing-term provisions survive the end of access. By checking the required acceptance box, typing your full legal name and submitting from the email address you will use for Beta access, you confirm you are at least 18, had an opportunity to read this Agreement and the Privacy Policy, understand them and agree to be bound electronically.
